Commissioner Jones thanked Commissioner Windes for her six years of service on the commission and wished her good luck on the Parks and Recreation Commission. Commissioner Windes thanked everyone on the commission.

E. AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION (3-Minute Limit)

Librarian's Report – Acting Library Manager, Josh Murray

Josh Murray on behalf of Manhattan Beach Library- the library has received their first California State Adventure Pass. The Adventure Pass may be checked out and will provide free vehicle entry (9 passenger max) to over 200 participating state parks. To place a hold on the pass, please call the library or go online to lacountylibrary.org.

Tween Book of the Month club will be held May 10 from 4:00-5:00 pm, they will be discussing Living with Viola, by Rosena Fung.

The evening book club will discuss Love and Saffron by Kim Faye, on June 6th, 6:30-7:30 pm. Call 310-545-8595 for more information.

Commissioner Windes thanked Manager Murray for assisting in preparation for the Afternoon with an Author, as well as announcing the event at a recent City Council meeting.

F. GENERAL BUSINESS

1. 2022 Work plan updates:

- a) Afternoon with an Author - Commissioner Schreiner reported that Councilmember Napolitano will not be able to attend so Mayor Stern will be introducing Jan Dennis at the event. There will be about 40 attendees. Urban Plates will be providing sandwiches and cookies. The new Manager, Tony Bass is eager to introduce the restaurant to the community and will make a short comment at the beginning of the event.

The Fire Chief Lang will not be able to attend so Battalion Chief Dulmage will be attending in his place.

Blank name tags will be provided for people to make their own.

Commissioner Schreiner thanked CSM Buike and Graphic Artist, Kristin Yamauchi for creating the event flyer.

Attendees will be able to enter from the front and back doors of the library.

- b) East Manhattan Beach Library Services - SMA Robb reported that the survey has closed but the data has not yet been analyzed. There were about 130 responses. On a preliminary read through, the results were mostly as expected. Residents living east of Sepulveda indicated a desire for eastside library services and most who live west of Sepulveda were happy with current library services.

Commissioner Jones would like to know the role of the commission moving forward and if an incoming commissioner should be assigned to the ad-hoc committee.

- c) MB Poetry Event – no updates, currently in a holding pattern

- d) Library Appreciation Party – The committee will be at the library at 9:00 am, May 10th to set up. The event will be from 10:00-12:00. Commissioners will be there to welcome library staff.

For school librarian appreciation, Commissioner Windes reported that all the names of the school librarians had been gathered and the principals of the school are all cooperating. A certificate and small gift will be delivered to each librarian by Commissioners Windes and Schreiner, in the fourth week of May. Certificates will be prepared by SMA Robb.

- e) Library Commission Book Giveaway (formerly No Strings Attached) - Commissioner Schreiner reported that everything is ready to go and will still be connected to the Library Photo Op Day. Banner and table location will need to be determined. Location will likely be near the wall facing the library, in order to be out of the photo frame.

- f) Story Adventure - Commissioner Bond reported that Eagle Scout candidate, Henry Johnson, has presented to the Rotary Club and has received donations and is very close to reaching his fundraising goal. Commissioner Jones suggested that Mr. Johnson might consider the Friends of the Library for any shortfall.

Commissioner Bond has narrowed her list of books for further consideration, down to five. Next steps is to meet with Mr. Johnson to get a status on the fundraising and go from there. At this point, there is no target date for completion but there will be more information available for the next meeting.

- g) Spring/Summer Reading Program/Teen Librarian update - Commissioner Windes updated that the Summer Discovery Program will begin June 1st and will be an online program.

Various programs being offered at the library in May, to celebrate Asian Pacific American Heritage Month.

- h) Library Photo Op Day - Commissioner Jones reported that she is hoping for a media presence and would like for this to be promoted in as many places as possible, and will work with Commissioner Bond on that. CERT has sent out a request for volunteers to provide security and first aid. There will be a marimba percussionist/cellist duo performing for the first 90 minutes and an acoustic guitarist and singer duo performing for the second 90 minutes. An amplified sound permit will need to be secured.

The event will be from 1:00-4:00 p.m., Sunday, June 5th. Set up will begin at 11:00 a.m. Manager Murray has reserved the meeting room for staging, and library staff will be present from 12:00 p.m.

- i) Entertainment Series - on hold for now, until the Photo Op takes place. Commissioner Jones auditioned a magician, and will be hiring him for the event.
