

Proclamation

- Whereas, National Employee Appreciation Day is held on the first Friday in March and was initially created in 1995 as a day for management to recognize workers for their hard work; and*
- Whereas, Companies and businesses that promote a positive culture through awarding and recognizing its employees have found that it leads to a happier more productive work place environment; and*
- Whereas, Employers who express employee appreciation tend to increase employee job satisfaction as well; and*
- Whereas, It is often easy to forget that employees are some of the most important assets a company can possess as they play a critical role in customer satisfaction and retention; and*
- Whereas, During this unprecedented time of working from home due to the pandemic, our City of Manhattan employees have stretched and adapted to seamlessly make the transition while continuing to provide outstanding service to our community.*

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that I, Suzanne Hadley, Mayor of the City of Manhattan Beach, California, on behalf of the City Council and the residents of Manhattan Beach, do hereby proclaim March 5, 2021, as in honor of all employees for their dedication and devotion to their work but especially to the staff at the City of Manhattan Beach who help make this city one of the finest.

Dated this 2nd day of March, 2021.
