BACKGROUND:

In preparation the Annual Boards and Commissions Interview and Appointment Process, the City Clerk's Office and staff liaisons have been in contact with current commissioners and applicants regarding upcoming scheduled vacancies.

To solicit interest in serving on the City's Boards and Commissions, the City Clerk's office placed advertisements in the January 2, February 6, March 5, April 2, April 23, and May 21 2020, editions of the Beach Reporter and the February 6, March 5, and April 23, 2020, editions of the Easy Reader newspapers. Staff posted notices on the City's website, Nextdoor, Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram accounts. Staff also sent out numerous e-notifications, published the vacancies in the Spring 2020 Manhappenings, and included information in the City's COVID-19 Daily Situation Reports.

The application deadline was initially set for April, 15, 2020, with interviews to be held on April 28, 2020. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and City Hall being closed to the public, the application deadline was extended until May 25, 2020, at 5:30 PM.

Interviews of applicants interested in serving on the City's Boards and Commissions will be conducted on May 28, 2020, held virtually via Zoom.

DISCUSSION:

Staff has compiled a list of applicants from the community indicating interest in serving on the City's Boards and Commissions. Below is a breakdown of each commission vacancy, along with the applicant's expressed interest.

1. Board of Building Appeals:

The Board of Building Appeals hears requests for interpretation of California Code provisions, alternative materials and methods of construction. The Board's interpretations and recommendations to the City Council are advisory. The Board consists of five boardmembers and meets on an as-needed basis.
